 - Half Page (5 inch wide x 3.875 inch tall) for $200
 - Quarter Page (5 inch wide x 1.8125 inch tall) for $100

Pallet and Freight Handling-

- The Tea Festival can help with the receiving, handling and pickup of palletized vendor materials shipped via motor freight to the show. Storage resources are very limited and careful coordination of any freight deliveries and pickups needs to be very closely coordinated with the festival staff. A handling fee of $50 or more may be charged depending on the time required to provide this service.

Seattle Center Concessionaire fee for Food and Beverage sales:

Selling beverages (brewed tea, etc) and/or food not prepackaged incurs an additional fee of $150 which goes to cover a Seattle Center concessionaire fee. All beverage and food sales must comply with city and state health requirements. There is no additional fee due if you are giving away free samples and/or if the beverages and food sold are prepackaged.

NOTE: Vendors who are selling prepared food only – see Food Vendor Application – a separate fee schedule applies.

Exhibits must be of high quality and the products or services exhibited must be clearly related to tea and tea education.

The Northwest Tea Festival is among a handful of leading shows in the northwest devoted to tea education and enjoyment. We go to great lengths to provide an educational and entertaining experience for persons interested in tea origins, history, consumption, and cultural idiosyncrasies.

Applicants are requested to include a description, samples, photos and/or literature about the products or services to be exhibited and an educational component to their sales efforts. Show management reserves the right to reject the application based on quality or appropriateness to the Show whether returning or new vendors. Furthermore any exhibitor who arrives for move-in with products different from what was stated in the application may be asked to leave and there will be no refund of booth payments. Management reserves the right to remove any unauthorized or inappropriate products during the Show.

Booth Assignments:

Vendors will be assigned booth locations after September 1st.

- Booth location is based on sponsorship level and on a first come, first serve basis for fully paid booths. Extenuating circumstances will be considered if presented in writing.
- No space will be assigned until the booth payment is received.
- The acceptable forms of payment are by check, money order, or credit card.

Cancellation Policy:

- No refunds for booth cancellations will be made after August 31, 2018.

Hours of Operation:

- Exhibitors are to remain open for business for the duration of the Show
- Exhibits are not permitted to be taken down until 4:01 pm on Sunday evening, after the Show closes. Any exhibitor violating this policy will lose seniority for booth placement for its next exhibiting year.

General Booth Layout and Acceptable Products or Services to exhibit:

- The Show assigns exhibit space only for tea education and the promotion and sale of products and services specified in your application (including any subsequent modifications for which exhibitors have obtained approval before move-in). Exhibitors promoting or selling any other products or services will be required to remove them from their exhibit.
- All Exhibitors are encouraged to have a significant educational component within their exhibit.
- Exhibitors are not permitted to exhibit or promote their products or services outside the boundaries of their assigned space or other approved spaces.
- Exhibitors are not permitted to play music or use any equipment that projects sounds, images or objects outside the bounds of their assigned space.
- The use of headset and hand-held microphones is prohibited
- Exhibitors are not permitted to place signage outside the bounds of their assigned space except in the case of Sponsors whose sponsor package includes such signage.
- The exhibit space price does not include decorations, storage, janitorial or other services.
- Additional services and/or supplies needed for your booth are all subject to show organizers discretion, must be arranged through show organizers before August 31, and all expenses will be the responsibility of the vendor.
- Restocking with handcarts/dollies must be done prior to the Show opening and after the Show closes each day, to ensure public safety.
- Storage - There is no on-site storage other than within your booth and under your tables.

Exhibit Height Regulations:

- For standard Aisle and Corner exhibit space the maximum height of walls and the contents of your exhibit is 8 ft. 3 in., except for the front 5 ft. of your exhibit that connects with an aisle. In this front 5 ft. the maximum height of walls and the contents of your exhibit is 4 ft. The reason for this policy is to allow for good sight lines up and down the aisles into your exhibit and all other exhibits. In fairness to all exhibitors this policy is strictly enforced.
- Maximum Height of Booth Walls and Contents to Protect Sightlines
Note: Drape height is 3 ft. on the two sides (Aisle Exhibit) or the one side (Corner exhibit), and 8 ft. 3 in. at back.

Fire Safety:

- Any decoration or display item within 18 inches of an ignition source must be flame-proofed prior to the Show. Documentation must be submitted to the Exhibits Manager before move-in. Examples of "ignition source" are any electrical outlet and electrical extension cords. The Seattle Fire Marshal insists on strict compliance by every exhibitor.
- Tea lights in the form of candles are permissible, Oil lights are not permitted by the Seattle Fire Marshal.

Photography is encouraged – with limitations:

- Casual, amateur photography is allowed, and encouraged, throughout the Show. For reasons of public safety the use of tripods is not permitted during Show hours.

Vendor Listing on the festival's website and in the Festival Show Guide

- Exhibitor listing on the Show's website www.nwteafestival.com with products and services included in description text as supplied by exhibitor.
- Exhibitor listing in the Official Show Guide distributed on-site (exhibitors must submit accurate information at least 4 weeks prior to Show opening) if application and full payment is received by August 31st.

Advertising in Festival Show Guide - Open to all exhibitors and sponsors.

Festival Show Guide is given to all 2500 to 3000+ festival attendees

There are three Ad sizes available:

- Full Page (5 inch wide x 8 inch tall) for $400
- Half Page (5 inch wide x 3.875 inch tall) for $200
- Quarter Page (5 inch wide x 1.8125 inch tall) for $100

Contact Julee Rosanoff, Exhibits Manager (contact information at end of this packet) if you would like to take advantage of this opportunity.

Business Licenses – Exhibitors are required to have both a City of Seattle Business License and a Washington State Unified Business Identification Number (UBI). Both of these numbers (if available) should be listed on the application form. These numbers are not the same.

City of Seattle Business license -

- Exhibitors who do not have a current City of Seattle Business License

There are two options available:

1. If you plan to regularly conduct business in the City of Seattle -
Apply to the City of Seattle for a business license.

You can apply on the web by going to:

<https://web7.seattle.gov/FAS/Self/Account/Logon/Home.aspx>.

or you can call 206-684-8402.

Note: You may not need pay for a full year's license fee. There are reduced fee licenses if you need the license to be only valid for part of the year.

- OR -

2. If you plan to only conduct business in the City of Seattle during the Tea Festival -
Join the Tea Festival's - Group Seattle City License.

Contact Julee Rosanoff, Exhibits Manager for more information.

Washington State Unified Business Identification Number (UBI) -

- Exhibitors who do not have a State of Washington Tax Number can call 800-647-7706 to get a free temporary registration tax number.

Liability Insurance –

All Exhibitors should be covered by Liability Insurance while exhibiting at the Tea Festival – Exhibitors should have liability insurance coverage that covers their business as it functions at the festival and that also covers the festival.

Please provide the following:

- Certificate of Liability from your insurance company –

A Certificate of Liability can be requested by you from your insurance company. This certificate should show NW Tea Festival (as shown below) as the certificate holder:

NW Tea Festival
11030 Evanston Ave N
Seattle, WA 98133

Note: There are not any specific limits required and should match your liability levels of your current policy. The usual amount is around $1,000,000 (or more) each occurrence, etc. Usually insurance companies will issue a Certificate of Liability Insurance at no charge.

All orders are governed by
Northwest Tea Festival Payment Policy and Limits of Liability & Responsibility.

Please read carefully.

1. This application is not a contract. Once you have been accepted into the Festival, a copy of the Exhibitor/Vendor Application and Registration Form signed by both parties will be returned to you.
2. NW Tea Festival and its subcontractors shall not be responsible for ordinary wear and tear in handling of equipment, damage to uncrated materials, materials packed improperly, glass breakage or concealed damage. Claims for loss or damage must be submitted to NW Tea Festival by the close of the show. No suit or action shall be brought against NW Tea Festival or its subcontractors more than six months after the cause of action accrues.
3. NW Tea Festival and its subcontractors are not responsible for the loss of, disappearance of, or damage to Exhibitor's freight after the same has been delivered to Exhibitor's booth, nor are NW Tea Festival and its subcontractors responsible for Exhibitor's freight before it is picked up from Exhibitor's booth for loading after the show. Exhibitors must submit a NW Tea Festival bill of lading for all outbound shipments. All bills of lading covering outgoing shipments submitted to NW Tea Festival or its subcontractors by Exhibitor will be checked at the time of pickup from the booth and corrected where discrepancies exist.
4. It is agreed that NW Tea Festival and its subcontractors are not insurers. Insurance, if any, shall be obtained by Exhibitor. Amounts payable by NW Tea Festival hereunder are based on the scope of liability as herein set forth and are unrelated to the value of the Exhibitor's property. It is further agreed that NW Tea Festival and its subcontractors do not provide for full liability should loss or damage occur. In the event that NW Tea Festival should be found liable for loss or damage to Exhibitor's equipment, the liability shall be limited to the specific article that was physically lost or damaged. Such liability shall be limited to a sum equal to $.30 per pound/per article with a maximum liability of $50.00 per item or $1,000.00 per shipment, whichever is less, as agreed upon damages and exclusive remedy. Provisions of this paragraph shall apply if loss or damage, regardless of cause of origin, results directly or indirectly to property through performance or nonperformance of obligations imposed by the offering of services to Exhibitors, or from negligence, active or otherwise, by NW Tea Festival, its subcontractors or their employees.
5. At the close of show, if carriers fail to pick up or refuse to accept shipment, NW Tea Festival reserves the right to reroute such shipment or move shipment to our warehouse pending advice from Exhibitor who will be charged accordingly for this service. No liability will be assumed as a result of such rerouting or handling. Thus, in order to expedite removal of materials from the show site, NW Tea Festival shall have the authority to change designated carriers, if such carriers do not pick up on time. Where no disposition is made by Exhibitor, materials will be disposed of and Exhibitor agrees to be responsible for payment of charges relating to such handling. NW Tea Festival assumes no liability as a result of such rerouting or handling. NW Tea Festival will also have the authority to dispose of materials left behind and to charge the vendor.

6. NW Tea Festival and its subcontractors shall not be liable for shipments received without receipts, freight bills or bill of lading, such as UPS or van lines, these shipments will be delivered to booth without guarantee of piece count or condition. No liability will be assumed for such shipments. Shipments received on separate days will be treated as separate minimum shipments.
7. NW Tea Festival and its subcontractors shall not be liable to any extent whatsoever for any actual, potential or assumed loss of profits or revenues or for any collateral costs that may result from any loss, injury or damage to Exhibitor's materials or Exhibitor personnel which may make it impossible or impractical to exhibit same.
8. The Exhibitor agrees, in the event of a dispute with NW Tea Festival or its subcontractors relative to any loss or damage to any of the Exhibitor's freight or equipment, that the Exhibitor will not withhold payment in any amount due to NW Tea Festival for freight handling services or any other services provided by NW Tea Festival or its subcontractors as an offset against the amount of the alleged loss or damage. Instead, the Exhibitor agrees to pay NW Tea Festival prior to the close of the show for all such charges and further agrees that any claim the Exhibitor may have against NW Tea Festival or its subcontractors shall be pursued independently by the Exhibitor as a completely separate transaction to be resolved on its own merits.
9. NW Tea Festival and its subcontractors shall not be responsible for any loss, delay, or damage due to events beyond their reasonable control which cannot be avoided by the exercise of due care and prudence, including without limitation, strikes, labor disputes, lockouts or work stoppages of any kind, fire, theft, windstorm, water, vandalism, acts of God, mysterious failure of power or utilities, and other events.
10. The Exhibitor agrees, in connection with the receipt, handling, temporary storage and reloading of its freight, that NW Tea Festival and its subcontractors will provide these services as Exhibitor's agent and not as bailee or shipper. If any employee of NW Tea Festival or its subcontractors shall be authorized to sign a delivery receipt, bill of lading or other document, the parties agree that NW Tea Festival or its subcontractor will do so as the Exhibitor's agent, and the Exhibitor accepts the responsibility thereof.
11. Pallet and Freight Handling-
The Tea Festival can help with the receiving, handling and pickup of palletized vendor materials shipped via motor freight to the show. Storage resources are very limited any freight deliveries and pickups needs to be very closely coordinated with the festival staff. A handling fee of $50 or more may be charged depending on the time required to provide this service.
